Contextualization and Objectives

STUDENTS

Material y Methods

Results

Graphical representation, in percentages, of the responses to a voluntary and anonymous survey of 16 items following the Likert scale.

Conclusions

Participation in this service-learning project (PAGID-ULE 2018-19) has been valued very positively by students, increasing their awareness of the need to inform society about aspects related to animal production, learning motivation and perception of having reached higher levels of knowledge.
